LIFE AT EAST CENTRAL . . .

. . .is a composite of activities, each taking its own position to complete the cycle of campus life and to create the whole student.

There are many things which composed our lives at East Central . . . the buildings . . . the faculty . . . classes . . . the dances in the gym. . . the ballgames we won. . . and those we lost . . . the flare of the pep rally bon-fires. . . hamburgers in the student Center. . . waiting for pictures. . . letters from home. . . Freshman Day. . . exams. . . May Day. . . Graduation.

"I feel good!"

"Dawn, did you spike my drink?"

Look at Faye's brown nose!

Buzz and Mike model the latest thing--play pants!

You crazy-looking thangs!

She lost her head!

"My worries are almost over."

East Central's Centralettes!

Phi Theta Kappa Initiates

That effervescent Marriage and Family class!

"That's a good un Rudy."

"Now, Ricky, You don't hurt him."

Study in the library!!?

"Is it really that bad, fellow?"

Midmorning bull session.

"Do you see anything in my eye?"

I've found that this is the best way to drown my troubles."

"Go, Seaweed!"

Sophomore Beauty Parlor does a thriving business.

Now go to sleepytown cause Santa will soon be here.

No! You cannot have seconds.

"I think Nell's lost her mind."

You'll wonder where your teeth went when you brush with Drain-O.

Turn, salt, ice.
Turn, salt, ice.
Turn, salt, ice.

"Ah, 'tis a work of art."

"Dirtiness is heavenliness!"

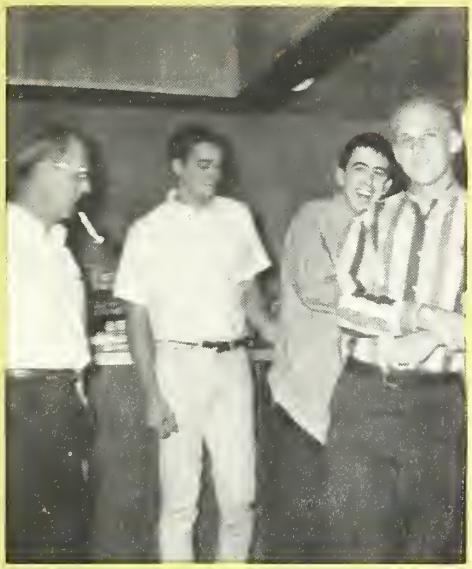
Retirement gift for Mrs. Gordon presented by E. C. J. C. Faculty Club.

"Et tu Brute?"

"Go you chicken fat go!"

Peterson and Payne relaxing in the Beauty Parlor!!!

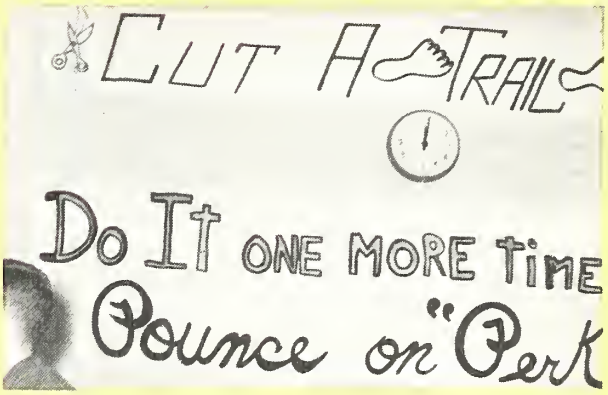
Vote for the candidate of your choice, but, VOTE!

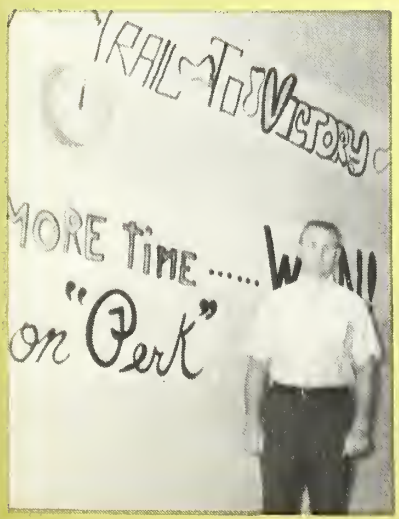


Silly Don, an organic student should know how to use a thermometer!

Getting ready for the war dance?

It's an impossible task!





This looks more like defeat!

Awards on display for Homecoming

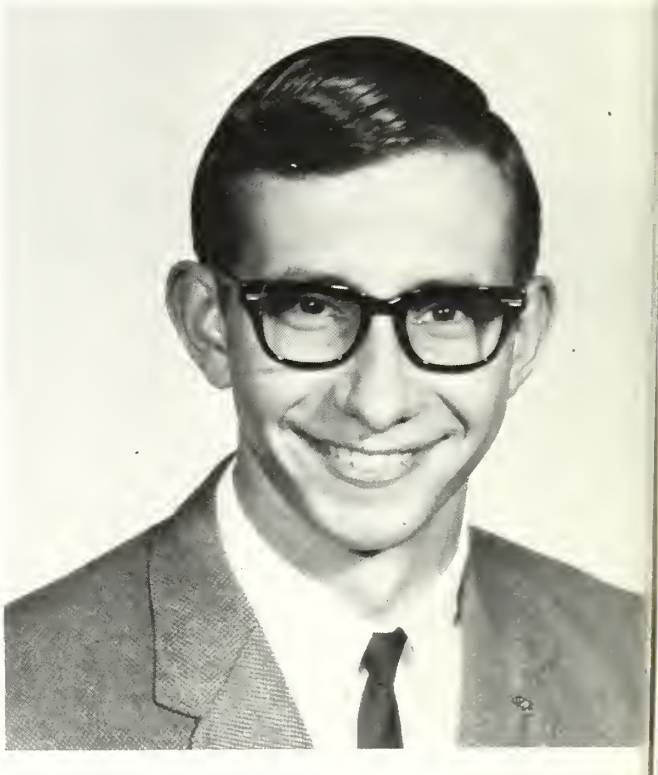
Miss Wood and her Alumnae Association awards - presented each year at awards day.

Dr. L.O. Todd, former president of East Central, lauds efforts of Miss Una Harris for her 20 years service to East Central.

Miss Harris views with pride her lovely gift from the Alumnae Association.

Registration - biggest Homecoming ever.

HALL OF FAME



Each year East Central seeks to honor sophomores who have achieved highest student achievement in scholarship, leadership, personality, and character. This honor is accomplished through the Hall of Fame, and being elected to membership in the Hall of Fame is the highest honor an East Central student can attain.

The Tom Tom staff sponsors this activity each year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Rudolph Mayes. Students nominated for membership in this select group must meet the following standards. They must have attained a "B" average or better scholastically; shown initiative and interest in academic work; rendered outstanding or persistent service to the school in activities which he has sponsored or undertaken; fulfilled to the best of his ability any request of him while occupying any position of responsibility (including elected offices or committees); exhibited approved ideals of character and conduct; and completed three semesters of college work.

The 1966 Wo-He-Lo proudly presents two outstanding students to the Hall of Fame. Betty Trapp, Philadelphia, is in the Home Economics Curriculum; and Billy Pat Evans, Carthage, is in Engineering. Congratulations to these two fine young leaders who have achieved this high honor.

"Education is a debt due from present to future generations", remarked a wise financier years ago in setting up an endowment for the establishment of a college for the training of teachers. The college students who attain the highest level of scholarship while they are acquiring an education are making the most substantial payments on that debt, for it is they who will render the most valuable service to the youth of their generation.

For three consecutive years the staff of the Wo-He-Lo has sought to honor the outstanding scholars of the current year by featuring them in the pages of the college year book.

In 1964 only one student attained an over-all rating, the grade decided upon by the Scholarship Committee of the college faculty as the qualifying grade for this honor. Last year, 1965, two individuals merited that honor. This year, six students from five different curricula, have qualified in their grade-point average, for this, the highest academic honor recognized by the college.

The members of the graduating class of 1966 who are being acclaimed on these pages as the outstanding scholars in their class are:

Winford Kinard, of Morton, Liberal Arts, grade-point average 3.809.

James Thomas Fulton, Naniah Waiya, Pre-Medical Curriculum, grade-point average, 3.780.

Martha Janiece Bricker, Morton, English, in the Education Curriculum, grade-point average, 3.760.

Betty Alexander, of Little Rock, Mississippi, Home Economics, grade-point average, 3.714.

Billy Pat Evans of Carthage, Mississippi, Engineering, grade-point average 3.638

June Bailey, Newton, Education Curriculum, grade-point average 3.787.

Mr. L. E. Cliburn

During the 1965-66 school year, East Central Junior College is losing through retirement the services of four valued employees. Their contributions to East Central and to the field of education cannot be measured in terms of monetary or physical values. When one considers the fact that among them, they have given a grand total of 124 years to education, it is indeed inspirational. Of this total, East Central has received 68 years of service.

Although their absence from the campus will be sorely felt both in the classroom and in every phase of campus life, certainly these persons deserve a period of freedom which will enable them to pursue pastimes which for years have been impossible. For one, it might be reading, for another hunting, for another travel. Whatever the avocations they choose, surely it will be with a sense of deserving and with the feeling that their jobs were well done.

For their dedication to the field of education and for their devotion and years of service to East Central Junior College, it is befitting that the 1966 Wo He Lo contain this page in honor of Miss Una Harris, Mr. O. B. Mayo, Mrs. LouElla Gordon, and Mr. L. E. Cliburn.

IN MEMORIAM

"Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;
For those whom they thinkest thou dost overthrow,
Die not,

. . . . . .

One short sleep past, we wake eternally
And Death shall be no more; . . . . . ."

John Donne

On a colorful autumn day in October, death brought a rude and tragic interruption to the placid and pleasant routine of college life when two young men, enrolled as freshmen at East Central Junior College, were killed in an automobile accident only a few miles from the college.

L. C. White, of Philadelphia, Mississippi, and Charles R. Brown, of Newton, Mississippi, were killed instantly when their car, as the result of a blown tire, left the highway and plunged down an embankment to collide with a tree.

The two eighteen-year old youths were returning to classes on the campus when the accident occurred. The student body and faculty were shocked into a silence of grief when the news was received. Roommates, classmates and casual friends shared in the feeling of bereavement at the sudden loss of the two, who hours earlier, and for a period of six weeks had participated with them in the serious-minded pursuit of knowledge as well as in the exciting crises and pleasant, relaxed atmosphere of college life.

An unusual quietness and bleak, strained faces reflected the realization that youth are reluctant to face, an experience registered long ago by the poet, Browning, "In the midst of life we are in death."

Hardly had the grief and regret resulting from this tragedy subsided amid the busy routine and demanding challenges of college life when again death ruthlessly invaded East Central relationships, and in another automobile accident during mid-semester vacation, on January 28th, Kenneth Wayne McElhenney of Union, Mississippi, was a victim, and once more, intense grief and profound regret were experienced.

Death, again, invaded the campus of East Central when Timmy Smith of Decatur, Mississippi, passed away at the Newton Hospital February 17, 1966.

Yet, in the memories left in the minds of relatives, college friends and classmates of these four young men who had so treasured life that they had sought to enhance its value by devoting their time and energy to the development of their abilities and talents through the process of higher education, their influence will linger as the years pass, and in the love and faith of those from whose presence they have been taken there must exist the same certainty that comforted the poet, Tennyson, in his grief for the friend of his college days:

"My own dim life should teach me this,
That life shall live forever more,
Else earth is darkness at the core,
And dust and ashes all that is;
That nothing walks with aimless feet,
That not one life shall be destroyed,
Or cast as rubbish to the void,
When God has made the pile complete."
